CONSOLIDATED INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

GCCISD Rodeo Art Show

Eight pieces of artwork by Goose Creek CISD students, from more than 300 entries, were selected by the School Art Committee judges to advance to the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo to be judged and displayed in the Hayloft Gallery. At a special presentation at the Goose Creek CISD Administration Building Tuesday, January 13, Tim Vaughn, director of fine arts for Goose Creek CISD, recognized the students whose artwork was advancing as well as their teachers.

"The talent level of our students and staff is incredible," said Vaughn.

Elementary Best of Show was awarded to Mirabella E. Rodriguez for "The Big Bull." Rodriguez is a 2nd grade student at William B. Travis Elementary School and is under the direction of art teacher Rebecca Acuna. Also in the Elementary Division, Luis Silva won a Gold Medal award for "Sheep Brothers." He is a 1st grade student at B. P. Hopper Primary School and is under the direction of art teacher Mindi Garzoria.

Highlands Junior School students, under the direction of art teacher Carla Griffin, earned both awards in the Junior School Division. Cheyanne Mohler, 8th grade, won Best of Show for "Isabella and Raney." Keylen Segura, 7th grade, received the Gold Medal for "Tractor in the Snow."

At the high school level, senior Christian Gonzales from Goose Creek Memorial High School, under the direction of art teacher Johnna Morris, won Special Merit for "Anselmo."

Shelby Flowers artwork "Paisley" will advance to the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo Art Show after winning a Gold Medal in the Goose Creek CISD Rodeo Art Show. The senior from Ross S. Sterling High School is under the direction of art teacher Annie Watson. View photo gallery here.

Senior Cindy Li from Ross S. Sterling High School, under the direction of art teacher Rebecca Carroll, won Best of Show for "Hard Day's Work." Also from Sterling, senior Chelsea Infante received a Gold Medal for "Lone Star Longhorn," and senior Shelby Flowers received a Gold Medal for "Paisley." Infante and Flowers are under the direction of art teacher Annie Watson.

All participants received a blue, red or white ribbon. An aqua ribbon was given to blue ribbon winners whose pieces were considered for Best of Show, Gold Medal or Special Merit.
