RSS Project Graduation Golf Tournament raises almost $8500

Despite dire weather predictions, only a few sprinkles fell on the golfers playing in the Ross S. Sterling High School Project Graduation Golf Tournament held on April 18 at Evergreen Point Golf Course. Almost $8500 was raised in the tournament to offset the cost of Project Graduation for 2015 Sterling graduates. Project Graduation is a celebration in which graduates and their guests can enjoy a safe environment the night of graduation. Chair of the event Kathi Krisher Clausen sends her deepest appreciation to all of the sponsors, donors, players and volunteers who helped make the scramble tournament a success.

Coming in first place with a score of 56 was the Eagle Mentor Sponsor team of American Mat & Timber. Players were Chris Fadal, Mike Robbins, Terry Dawson and Ketran Gentry. A three way tie occurred for second place, with all three teams having a score of 60.

Those vying for second were the team of Jonathan Kirksey, Joey Ickes, Jeremy Reed and Randy O'Brien; Eagle Mentor Sponsor Krisher McKay Realtors' team with players Ben Clausen, Taylor Buntin, Ryan Woods and Drew Selensky; and Eagle Mentor Sponsor George Ward's team with players George Ward, David Logan Ward, David Lee Ward and Kenneth Tilton. A scorecard playoff determined that second place went to the Jonathan Kirksey team, with third place going to the George Ward team and fourth place going to the Krisher McKay team.

Closest to the pin winners were Randy O'Brien and Terry Dawson. Longest drive winner was Chris Gravatt.

Other Eagle Mentor Sponsors were Mike and Kathy Clausen, Tandus Centiva, Baytown GMC, McGriff, Seibels & Williams, PBK Architects, Hotchkiss Disposal, Force Corporation, Community Resource Credit Union, SEV Home Care, Inc. and Standard Automatic Fire Enterprises. Birdie Mentor Sponsors were Unify Environmental, CNH Consulting and Evonik Oil Additives.
