Gentry Watch D.O.G.S. Help Keep School Safe

Nearly every day, fathers and grandfathers of Gentry Junior students may be found patrolling the hallways and helping to keep the school safe. Watch D.O.G.S., which stands for Dads of Great Students, has approximately 20 members who help out at the school when they have some free time.

“Six members come on a regular basis,” said David Yepez, assistant principal, who spearheaded the organization of the group.

Watch D.O.G.S. help keep traffic flowing between class changes, check restrooms and serve as just another set of eyes and ears to ensure that all students and staff are safe. Recently, after numerous attempts to catch the culprit of graffiti on the walls in the boys restroom, a Watch D.O.G. dad decided to check the restrooms one last time before he went home. He found the boy with marker in hand and made sure he went to the assistant principal.

“We appreciate our Watch D.O.G.S. and are so pleased that they take time out of their busy schedules to help us do everything the Gentry Way,” said Rachel Vaughan, assistant principal.
