

Community volunteers sought for textbook reviews

The Goose Creek CISD is seeking community volunteers to serve on this year's district textbook adoption committees. Committees will be comprised of district personnel and community volunteers.

The textbook adoption for this year will include the following subject areas:

- Language Arts and Reading, Grades K-1 (English and Spanish)
- Reading, Grades 2-5 (English and Spanish)
- Reading (Elective), Grades 6-8
- Literature, Grades 6-12
- AP English Language
- AP English Literature
- English for Speakers of Other Languages, Grades 9-12 Committees will evaluate and recommend materials for adoption and use in the district. Materials selected this year will begin use in the district during the 2010-2011 school year.

All committee meetings will be held after school hours. The times, dates and locations of all meetings will be determined by each committee at a later date.

Any person who would like to volunteer to serve on a selection committee should contact David Yannotta by Friday, September 25, at (281) 420-4440 or dpyannotta@gccisd.net.
