CONSOLIDATED INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

Textbook Committees Need Volunteers

Goose Creek CISD is in the process of forming committees to adopt new instructional materials for the 2015-2016 school year.

The subjects that are up for adoption are Social Studies Grades K – 12, High School Math, Fine Arts, and Floral Design. Committee members are expected to attend meetings after school hours, review all textbook samples, have an understanding of the Texas Essentials of Knowledge and Skills (TEKS), and follow the rubric determined by the district to help the district make an informed decision on the new textbooks that the district will be receiving for implementation in the fall of 2015.

If you are a community member or parent and are interested in being on one of the committees, please contact Kellie Skarda at kfskarda@gccisd.net. She will need to know what committee you are interested in, your name, address, and telephone number.
