CONSOLIDATED INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

GCCISD Hosts Parent Fair

GCCISD Hosts Parent Fair Goose Creek CISD will host a Parent Fair on Saturday, October 25, from 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. at Ross S. Sterling High School at 300 W. Baker Road. The focus of the Parent Fair is to provide resources for parents and inform them of other available resources through the district and in the community.

Free dental screenings will be available, and vision screenings will be available through Eye Care for Kids. Free flu shots and immunizations for children are offered through the Harris County Health Department. Vendors will include Community Health Choice, U.S. Champions, Harris County Public Health ES-Nutrition and WIC Services, Neighbors Emergency Center, Baytown Parks and Recreation and others.

Information will be provided by Communities in Schools, social workers, Bay Area Council on Drugs and Alcohol (BACODA), Migrant Program, school nurses, Security, Bilingual/ESL, Special Education, Food Services, Transportation, the English Language Arts Department, the Baytown Fire Department, and other resources.

Children may "Trick or Treat" at the various tables, and elementary school students may participate in a costume contest at 11:00 a.m. Drawings for door prizes will be held throughout the day.

Parents and students enjoy the 2013 Parent Fair.
