Robert E. Lee Band Wins Top Ratings

The Robert E. Lee Band competed in the UIL Region 10 Marching Band Contest Saturday, October 18. The contests featured bands from Goose Creek all the way to Orange ISD near the Louisiana border.

"The REL Band had a great and confident performance, earning top ratings from the judges and winning the crowd over with this very entertaining show!" said Robert Poulin, REL band director.

The 2014 REL show consists of a medley of 10 of the top hits of the 1990s, including 1990: "Vogue," 1991: "Smells Like Teen Spirit," 1992: "Never Gonna Get It (My Lovin)," 1993: "I Will Always Love You," 1994: "Can You Feel The Love Tonight," 1995: "Gangsta's Paradise," 1996: "Macarena," 1997: "SemiCharmed Life," 1998: "Pretty Fly For A White Guy," and 1999: "Livin La Vida Loca."

The band staff planned, wrote and directed this very entertaining show, which has become a favorite around the area at football games and contests. Along with Poulin, Caleb Lopez also serves as band director. Percussion director is Dr. Stefan Ice, and Color Guard director is Victoria Burton.

"Please help us congratulate the members of the band on working tirelessly towards this very challenging goal! Rain or shine, the band is working, and the staff is very proud of every member who participated in the process and won honor for themselves and for their school on Saturday," said Poulin. "The Lee band also wants to congratulate Sterling and GCM on earning superior ratings as well at the Region Marching Contest."

The public may see the 1990s show in its entirety one last time as the Lee Ganders play against Nederland High School in varsity football at Stallworth Stadium this Thursday night at 7:00 p.m.
