Eight students win top awards in rodeo art show

Eight Goose Creek CISD students earned top honors at the District's annual Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo Art Show on Jan. 15.

Every participant in the rodeo art show is a winner, receiving a certificate of merit, signed by the Houston Rodeo and Livestock Show president and a blue, red or white ribbon for achievement.

Special recognition is bestowed upon selected works and the artists who created them.

At the high school level, Christina Magana, a senior at Goose Creek Memorial, won "Best of Show" at the event. She is a student of art teacher Jill Mitchell. Wendy Mason from Goose Creek Memorial and Alexis Sanchez and Chelsea Infante of Ross S. Sterling were named "Gold Medal Winners" in the high school category. Mason is a student of teacher Johanna Strown, Sanchez is a student of Annie Watson, and Infante is a student of Rebecca Carroll.

At the junior school level, Jannah Janobas, an eighth grader at Highlands Junior, won "Best of Show." She is the student of art teacher Carla Griffin. Cheyanne Mohler from Highlands Junior earned a "Gold Medal" award. She is also a student of Griffin.
