GCCISD Top Ten Honored

The top ten students, ranked according to grade point average, from Goose Creek Memorial High, Robert E. Lee High School, and Ross S. Sterling High School were honored at a reception at the Administration Building May 20. The thirty students, along with their families, friends, and administrators, enjoyed a reception, catered by Aramark, before the ceremony. Marianne Ondo from GCM, Amanda Tallent from REL, and Chad Leiper from RSS, valedictorians of their 2013 graduating classes, led the pledges to the U.S. and Texas flags.

Dr. Salvador Cavazos, Superintendent of Schools, welcomed the guests. High school principals Michael Wahl from GCM, Bruce Davis from REL and Don Beck from RSS introduced the students, while Howard Sampson, president of the Board of Trustees and Dr. Cavazos presented them with an engraved Cross pen and a plaque in honor of their accomplishments.
