1st Annual Baytown Basketball Tournament School Supply Drive

Baytown Police Officer Jeff Spencer, and Pearland Police Officer Robert DaSilva collaborated with Julie DaSilva, Crockett Elementary School counselor in the 1st Annual Baytown Basketball Tournament School Supply Drive.

The event took place on Sunday, August 18, at Sterling High School's Winnie Brown Gymnasium.

The tournament was sponsored by Project Blue, a non-profit organization that offers financial assistance to officers who are ill or injured. Teams participating in the tournament were the Pearland Police Department, Baytown Police Department, Conroe Police Department, and GCCISD's Crockett team, consisting of teachers and volunteers.

The championship winner of the trophy was GCCISD's Crockett team, comprised of teachers Jaime Lopez and Juan Lopez of Crockett Elementary, Greg Smith of Sterling High School, Chance LaFour of Gentry Jr. School, Clay Garrison of Horace Mann Jr. School, Jared Eikhoff of Lee College, Derek Haywood and Tony Flores who are employed by Crockett Elementary's Partner in Education, Chevron Phillips, as well as community volunteer Graham Thompson. The entry fee to the tournament was school supplies.

Crockett Crusaders are benefiting from the generous donations from the community. As a result, Crockett received over 150 backpacks and fifteen boxes of various school supplies.

The Crockett Elementary faculty and staff appreciate the support of the Baytown, Conroe and Pearland Police Departments in helping us achieve making our motto of "Teamwork Makes the Dream Work!" a living testament.
