

Fire at Casa Linda apartments forces bus riders back to school

A fire at the Casa Linda apartment complex at the intersection of Garth Road and Northwood Drive has caused the district to return bus riders to their school.

Affected students are from Alamo and Lamar elementary schools and Gentry Junior School.

Each school is calling parents to notify them about the situation.

Parents are allowed to pick up students when they can.

Students who are not picked up by parents or guardians will be taken home after the district gets an "all-clear" from the fire department.

Information will be updated as it becomes available. Call your child's school for more information.
