District celebrates Youth Art Month

Goose Creek CISD schools are celebrating Youth Art Month with an art show at the Administration Building, 4544 Interstate 10 East.

Artwork of Goose Creek CISD students from kindergarten to 12th grade will be on display Wednesday, April 18 and Thursday, April 19 at the Administration Building.

The public is invited to view the artwork during regular business hours.

A reception honoring the artists, parents, and art teachers will be from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. on Thursday, April 19.

Overall, there are more than 250 pieces of art — from paintings to sculptures and more — for this year's Youth Art Month show.

Goose Creek Fine Arts Director Timothy Vaughn will speak and recognize artists and teachers at Thursday night's reception at about 5:45 p.m.

"These art experiences are a core part of the learning opportunities that we offer students where they can connect in deeper ways with the world around us," Vaughn said. "It is my belief that excellence in education and in the arts goes hand-in-hand with preparing students for a lifetime of success."

Youth Art Month is celebrated each year to emphasize the value of art education for all children and to encourage public support for quality school art programs.
