

GOOSE CREEK

CONSOLIDATED INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

Goose Creek CISD enrollment still climbing

Goose Creek CISD has experienced increasing enrollment over the past few years, and the 2012-2013 school year is no exception.

Goose Creek CISD has 21,723 students in pre-kindergarten through grade 12 enrolled on Sept. 13, which represents growth of 246 students (1.15 percent) this school year.

This is the highest number of students ever enrolled in the school district.

While the district-wide enrollment most likely won't stabilize until October as students continue to filter in, indications point to enrollment going higher.

Over the past five years, the District has gained 1,370 students, or 6.7 percent growth.

Over the past 10 years, Goose Creek CISD grew by 18 percent, from 18,330 in 2001 to 21,675 students last year.

And there will be more.

Approximately 4,500 new students are projected to enroll in Goose Creek CISD over the next decade, with annual gains ranging between 1.5 to 2 percent, according to the District's demographer.

Total enrollment in the 14 elementary and primary schools is 10,836, up 121 students from last year.

Four of the 13 elementary schools and the primary school are experiencing increases in enrollment: Ashbel Smith (778, up 27 students); Alamo (585, up 28 students); Crockett (680, up 69 students); Highlands (879, up 70 students); and Hopper Primary (578, up 69 students).

Total enrollment in the five junior schools is 4,738, down 39 students from last year.

Horace Mann Junior School is the only junior school with more students this year (943, up 40 students).

Total enrollment in the high schools is 6,149, up 164 students from last year.

Lee High School has an enrollment of 1,518, down 26; Sterling High School has an enrollment of 2,350, up 51; and Goose Creek Memorial High School enrollment is 1,810, up 59 from last year.

Enrollment at IMPACT Early College High School, now in its third year, is 293 (IMPACT adds approximately 100 students per year) while enrollment at the Peter E. Hyland Center is 123, down by 31 students as of September 13.
