REL Celebrities earn high marks for dancing

The Celebrities of Robert E. Lee High School recently participated in three regional dance competitions, representing the school and the Baytown area with pride and class.

From a pair of Super Sweepstakes awards to Outstanding Showmanship and Choreography, the 42-member Lee dance troupe has been very busy this spring.

"We are very proud of their accomplishments," said Alice Henrichsen, Celebrity Director. She said she was especially proud of the GPA award they earned recently in Galveston for having a cumulative GPA of 3.421.

Henrichsen has been directing the Celebrities for all nine years of its existence.

The following list is the awards the Celebrities earned at three recent competitions.

At the Showmakers of America competition at Pearland Dawson High School, the officers earned the Sweepstakes Award and Outstanding Showmanship – Jazz & Modern. The team earned the Sweepstakes Award, Outstanding Showmanship – Novelty, Outstanding Choreography – Pom, first runner up – Team Pom, and first runner up – Team Novelty

The Spirit Officers earned first place in the small ensemble category, and Macey Dominguez placed fifth among ninth and 10th grade soloists.

At the "Crowdpleasers" competition at Clear Springs High School, the Celebrity officers won Super Sweepstakes (90s and above on all routines), and first runner up – Modern. The team earned Super Sweepstakes (90s and above on all routines), second runner up best in class — team pom, and first runner up best in class — team novelty. Spirit Officers won first place — social officer routine.

At the American Dance/Drill Team competition in Galveston, the officers won Sweepstakes and the Award of Excellence (90s and above all routines/judges), the Judges Award – Officer Modern, and the Spirit Officers award – first place small ensemble

The dance team won Sweepstakes and the Gussie Nell Davis Award of Excellence (90s and above all routines/judges), the Judges Award for Team Pom and Team Novelty, and Best Overall – Choreography.

Soloist Katie Sparkes won third runner up solo finalist.

The Celebrities will perform all of its award-winning routines at the spring show on April 15 and 16. The spring show will feature the Celebrities and the REL dance department dancers.

The show will take place in the Lee HS Auditorium and will include a silent auction and a flower shop to help support the Celebrity Booster Club.
