CONSOLIDATED INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

GCCISD high school football schedules released

All three Goose Creek CISD high schools recently released their 2011 varsity football schedules.

"The Game," the annual match up between Lee and Sterling high schools, will be played on Aug. 26, the opening week of football season.

On the flipside, Lee has its other cross-town rival in District 19-4A: Goose Creek Memorial. The Ganders and Patriots will play in the final game of the regular season on Nov. 4.

Sterling and Goose Creek Memorial each play six games at Stallworth Stadium and four on the road, while Lee has five road contests.

Lee and Goose Creek Memorial play in District 19-4A with Barbers Hill, Crosby, Dayton, Galena Park, C.E. King, and North Forest.

Sterling will enter the season with a new head coach. Former Clear Lake Coach Troy Aduddell is the Rangers new head football coach. Coach Aduddell becomes the 12th football coach in Sterling's 44-year history.

Coach Aduddell headed up the Clear Lake High School football program since 1996, compiling a record of 83-69-1. As head coach, he took the Falcons to the playoffs in 1999, 2003, 2004 and 2008. In 2004, the Falcons were state semi-finalists in the 5A playoffs.

Sterling is in District 21-5A with West Brook, Channelview, North Shore, La Porte, and Port Arthur.
