

Sterling's Ho Ho Ho Food Scavenger Hunt is Monday night

Ross S. Sterling High School is getting ready to "scavenge" the neighborhoods of Baytown for all kinds of food and baby items.

Monday, Dec. 5, is the date of the high school's annual Ho Ho Ho Food Scavenger Hunt. This has been a great tradition at Sterling for the past two decades.

Students, in teams of six, along with an adult driver, are assigned a neighborhood in which to collect food items, and new this year: stuff for babies. The event is scheduled from 4 to 7 p.m., with the students actually knocking on doors to collect food items from 5 to 7 p.m. All food items go to the Baytown Food Bank and baby items go to the New Horizon Family Center.

Last year, more than 200 students participated and brought in 2 tons of food.

Thanks to Principal Don Beck, and Sterling's Partners in Education, San Jacinto Methodist Hospital, all participants will be served pizza, cookies and drinks. Prizes will be given to the teams who bring in the most items as well as the best-dressed team.

All Sterling students are invited to participate in this schoolwide activity.

These Sterling High School students and many more will be knocking on doors Monday during the 21st annual Ho Ho Ho Food Scavenger Hunt. Sterling student will be seeking food to donate to the Baytown Food Bank. Pictured are students from the Teen Leadership II class.
