Christmas came early for some students at Carver Elementary School.

As part of its 10th annual bike giveaway, Baytown's new Academy store donated 20 bicycles and helmets to Carver Elementary School students to help deserving students have an even better Christmas.

The eligible students were based on perfect attendance through the first semester this year. The goal of the giveaway is to help encourage students to build positive characters.

Carver was one of only two greater Houston area schools to get bikes this year, said store director Natalie Colquitt.

Carver Principal Rachel DeLeon said the eligible students were surprised when they walked into the school cafeteria on Thursday, seeing 20 bikes lined up in front of them.

As DeLeon picked the names out of a Christmas bag, students cheered and ran to the stage and put their hands on their new bike.

Students, 10 boys and 10 girls, winning new bikes are: Hipolito Aguirre Heramosilo, third grade; Diego Arredondo, pre-kindergarten; Lizbeth Barrera Campos, third grade; Brittany Blevins, second grade; Jeremiah Burrell, second grade; Jose Garcia, fourth grade; Miriam Gonzalez, fifth grade; Abigail Grabowski, fourth grade; Emileigh Grabowski, third grade; Zvi Grabowski, first grade; Ivan Lagunas, fifth grade; Alizeh Lupian, kindergarten; Sierra McBride, second grade; Montrel Motton, fifth grade; Nathan Rosas, fourth grade; Stepho'n Seales, fourth grade; Jeremiah Solomon, second grade; Stephanie Sotelo, fourth grade; Damian Sprague, first grade; and Darisema Trujillo, fifth grade.
