

Goose Creek Consolidated Independent School District

Attendance Procedures for Remote Asynchronous Days

- Student will not be required to log in during a designated class time.
- Teachers will provide the classroom assignments so that students can demonstrate engagement during remote asynchronous days.
- Attendance is determined by students documented instructional engagement.
- Documentation of student engagement must be submitted by 11:59 PM on the designated remote asynchronous day.
- The staff will have the opportunity to mark attendance the following day.
- Students must demonstrate engagement to be marked present.

